WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

'I bless you Father, Lord of heaven and of earth...'

What does Jesus' prayer tell us about God and about our relationship with him? It tells us that God is both Father and Lord of the earth as well as heaven. He is both the Creator and Author of all that he has made; the first origin of everything. His authority, wisdom, and gracious care extends to every living thing, and his boundless love and goodness is directed to the welfare of each person made in his image and likeness. He is the source of all human life. That is why all fatherhood and motherhood is ultimately derived from him (Eph. 3:14-15).

Jesus's prayer contrasts the "wisdom of the world" with the wisdom which comes from above - from the Father of heaven who is all wise and good. Jesus' prayer contains an implicit warning that pride can keep us from the love and knowledge of God. Pride is the root of all vice and evil and the strongest influence propelling us to sin against God and to do wrong to our neighbour. Sinful pride first vanquishes the heart, making it cold and indifferent towards God. It also closes the mind to God's truth and wisdom for our lives. What is pride's flaw? It is the inordinate love of oneself at the expense of others and the exaggerated estimation of one's own knowledge, power, importance and position over others.

Jesus contrasts pride with child-like simplicity and humility. The simple of heart are like "little children" in the sense that they see purely and simply without any pretence or falsehood. They instinctively recognize their utter dependence and reliance on others - especially those who can teach and form them to live strong, healthy, mature lives. No one can grow in wisdom and maturity unless they are willing to be taught and formed in how to live wisely and to distinguish between good and evil, truth and falsehood.

Simplicity of heart is closely linked with humility - the queen of virtues that forgets oneself in order to love and serve others for their sake. The humble of heart are the freest of all - emptied of vanity and self-concern they can single-mindedly focus on the welfare of others. The Lord Jesus is our model. He proclaimed to his disciples, "I am gentle and lowly of heart" (Matt. 11:29). Jesus came "not to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for the many" (Matt. 20:28). Jesus' "gentleness" is not weakness or powerlessness. It is "strength under control" which is at the service of good rather than evil. Lord, give us a child-like simplicity and purity of faith to gaze upon your face with joy and confidence in your all-merciful love.

Invitation for new members to join our St Vincent de Paul Society - St Stephen's Conference: "To serve the poor is to go to God..." – St Vincent de Paul The St Vincent de Paul Society - St Stephen's Conference (volunteer group) is currently welcoming new members to join us and help provide a hand up to people in need. Since 1903, we've been helping families and individuals living in the Brisbane city area to rebuild their lives. In the last twelve months alone we were able to help over 1600 people. The members of our St Stephen's Conference would like to invite you to share our mission of serving Christ in the poor. To find out more on how you can join us and put your faith into action, our members will be available to chat after each Mass at the Cathedral this weekend or you can come along to one of our information sessions at Mercy House (Parish Office) on Monday straight after the 12.30pm Mass or Tuesday evening after the 5.10pm Mass. Alternatively please contact us: Ph:0447 151 022 Email: membership.bris@svdpqld.org.au

Be part of the Media Apostolate If you are a person who regularly attends the Cathedral parish, but optimally comes to the Sunday 10am Mass, would you like to become one of our volunteer webcasters? Due to other commitments, we are needing to replace two volunteers. All training will be provided for this invaluable service, which helps those who are shut in or infirmed to stay connected with the church. Once established, volunteers are put on a shared roster and can expect to webcast, on average, one Mass every six - eight weeks. Please email communications@bne.catholic.net.au or phone 3324 3227 if you are interested. All ages welcomed. Whomever comes can expect to look at the different parts of the Mass with new eyes.

For 6 years a small group of people have been volunteering to provide the Cuppa after Mass on 3rd Sunday of the month. We thank them for their contribution but after this long time many who provide the morning tea following the 8.00am Mass now feel it is time to step aside. This morning tea is an important initiative as we attempt to develop a welcoming and inclusive community for all who worship at the Cathedral. At the 8am mass there is a diversity of people of all age groups and ethnic backgrounds and we are now seeking people from all these groups who can assist in continuing and growing this important initiative. We all need your help!! The more volunteers we have from these groups the more inclusive it can become and also diminish the stress on a few helpers. If you feel you can help in this way can you please meet outside the Chapel entrance door after 8am mass this Sunday. Alternatively, if you have to leave quickly but would like to help in this way please send an email to Bob Elliott at cathedralppc@bne.catholic.net.au.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail Faith for all defects supplying Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

SWEET SACRAMENT DIVINE

Sweet Sacrament Divine,
hid in thy earthly home,
Lo! Round thy lowly shrine, with suppliant hearts we come.
Jesus, to thee our voice we raise in songs of love and heartfelt praise,
Sweet Sacrament Divine.

Sweet Sacrament of Peace,
dear home of every heart,
where restless yearnings cease,
and sorrows all depart.
There in thine ear, all trustfully
We tell our tale of misery
Sweet Sacrament of Peace.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper you prayed to the Father
that all should be one.
Send your Holy Spirit
upon all who bear your name
and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

SATURDAY MORNING

Marian Prayer

To Our Lady of the Resurrection

Mary,
at the resurrection of your divine Son, God's anointed One,
your heart was filled with joy beyond all telling
and your faith was wonderfully exalted.
For it was in faith
that you conceived Jesus,
and it was in faith
that you awaited his resurrection,
the strongest proof of his divinity.
In the strength of faith
you waited for that day of light and life
when the night of death would be ended,
the whole world would exult,
and the infant church would tremble with joy
at seeing again her immortal Lord.
You knew at that first Easter that his divine life was the model for our lives
the grace of living for God.
Enable me to rise with Jesus spiritually
and live a life free from sin.
Help me to do God's will
and to be patient in suffering.
Enrich my soul with sanctifying grace through sacraments, prayer, and good works.
And let the life of Jesus grow in me,
so that he may live in me.
Amen
