his AIF contacts and occupied a number of minor diocesan positions. He died at the St John of God Hospital in Subiaco on 28 April 1959 and is buried in Karrakatta cemetery. About 2000 people attended his funeral.

100 years ago the Great War was still raging with no end to the slaughter in sight. On ANZAC Day we remember the landing on the rocky, narrow beaches of Gallipoli and we stand in awe at the courage and sacrifices made by all our fellow Australians who volunteered and served in the First Australian Imperial Force. We remember with gratitude all Australians who have volunteered and served down through the years.

On Wednesday morning our ANZAC Day Mass will be celebrated at 8am in the Cathedral. Lest we forget.

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

23 – 28 APRIL 2018
FOURTH WEEK OF EASTER
YEAR B

This Wednesday Australia will pause as we commemorate ANZAC Day. The names on the Honour Rolls on the big city cenotaphs or small country memorials remind us that the Dardanelles Campaign, the Western Front and many places in between World War I touched every family and affected every community in Australia. Accompanying our young men as they left our shores for distant lands were countless other Australians needed to support the troops: doctors and nurses, cooks and stretcher bearers. Also accompanying the troops were chaplains. During the week I came across the biography of the West Australian priest, Fr John Fahey, and it reminded me that World War I left a lasting legacy at every level of society.

John Fahey was born in Ireland on 3 October 1883. He was ordained in 1907 and not long after this, he arrived in Perth.

Shortly after the declaration of war, like so many others, he joined the Australian Imperial Force on 8 September 1914.

He was assigned to the 11th Battalion and was the first chaplain to go ashore at Gallipoli on 25 April 1915, disregarding the order to stay on the ship, asserting his duty to go with his men.

His work, consoling the wounded, burying the dead and encouraging the living, was widely appreciated and he became a very popular figure.

He was evacuated, due to illness in November 1915, but re-joined the battalion in Egypt before being transferred to France in 1916. He was mentioned in despatches and awarded the "Distinguished Service Order" for "gallantry under fire".

About the soldiers he ministered to, he reflected that "the more I knew them, the more I loved them their bravery has been written in deeds that will live to the end of the world".

Fr Fahey was the longest serving front-line chaplain of any denomination.

He returned to Australia in March 1918 where he resumed pastoral duties in various Perth parishes until his death in 1959. He was a faithful pastor, kept up

O send forth your light and your truth;
let these be my guide.

My redeemer, I will thank you on the harp,
O God, my God.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing
who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

Holy God, We Praise Your Name

Holy God we praise your name!
Lord of all, we bow before you;
All on earth your pow'r proclaim,
All in heaven above adore you;
Boundless is your vast domain,
Everlasting is your reign.

Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name you;
While in essence only One,
Undivided God we claim you,
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper
you prayed to the Father
that all should be one.
Send your Holy Spirit
upon all who bear your name
and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us
love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

HANDMAID AND QUEEN

God our Father,
we praise you and give you thanks
for choosing the Virgin Mary to be the Mother of your Son.
In her, the Word found a servant:
your love makes her a queen.
We pray to you:
Make us follow her as an example
that we might listen to your Word
and put it into practice.
May we then be able to share
the inheritance of eternal joy
that you give us
through your only Son Jesus Christ,
our Saviour and our brother.
