That is why those who speak, not to our emotions and wants, but to our consciences are very important. Here in our Cathedral Parish and in our wider community we don't need any more people who will just spin us more and more catchy slogans. What we need is fellow parishioners whose lives reflect the convictions of their experience; the confidence that only comes from persistently living out their faith. As you look around today you will probably notice people in the pews whose lives likewise possess a form of "authority" that is of God, an authority that is worthy of our respect and attentiveness. It does not come easy or without a price!

This weekend's Gospel tells us that Jesus acted and spoke with authority. It is daunting to consider that we have all the ingredients in our lives to possess that God given "authority" through the lives we are living now, the choices we are making now, and through the positive and authentic example we allow to ripple out from our actions and attitudes.

FAREWELL TO JAMES GOLDRICK – ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

You don't have to have a musical ear to appreciate the skill of our Cathedral organist, James Goldrick. For the past four years we have been blessed with James' musical ministry and the important work he has done in the Cathedral Music department as Assistant Director of Music. His leadership and faith has been valued by all involved in the life of St Stephen's. In August James will be leaving us and moving to the United States to commence postgraduate studies in Music at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana. Recognizing James' talent, he has been offered a full scholarship which will allow him to pursue a Masters of Sacred Music at the prestigious Notre Dame Sacred Music Program. His final service will be on Sunday August 5th at 10.00am. In the meantime we have the opportunity not only to wish him well but also to appreciate James' musical skills.

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

9 – 14 JULY 2018

14TH WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR B

A couple of years ago there was a popular movie called The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel about a group of British retirees who come to Mumbai, India, to live out their retirements. It was a feel good movie that the British are so good at producing. These British retirees are enticed to the Marigold by the exaggerated advertisements designed by the young manager - but the run-down hotel is nothing like what is pictured in the slick brochure.

Each of the seven guests deals with the challenges of their new circumstances with varying degrees of English stiff-upper-lip stoicism. Jean Ainslie (irritatingly played by Penelope Wilton) is a relentlessly negative woman who despises everything about India: the heat, the food, the poverty, the unrelenting masses. Having lost their retirement savings in their daughter's internet start-up, Jean resents both her new life and her floundering marriage. Angry and afraid, she refuses to leave the hotel.

Graham Dashwood (played by Tom Wilkinson) on the other hand, is a retired London High Court Judge who had spent his early years in India. He has an abiding love for the land and deep respect for its people, and shares his affection for India with his fellow guests.

One afternoon, Jean finds herself having tea with Graham. Desperate to leave India, Jean asks the retired High Court Judge, "How can you bear this country? What do you see that I don't?" Graham replies thoughtfully and immediately, "The light, colours, smiles. And the way people here see life as a privilege and not a right. It teaches me something. . . Why would you not go out? There is so much to see. All life is here, Mrs. Ainslie."

In his thoughtful and insightful reply I think Graham captures something of what the people of the synagogue must have seen in Jesus in today's gospel. They are drawn to Jesus' vision of hope, his optimism, his wisdom, his revelation of God's loving presence in the "light, colours and smiles" of their everyday lives.

As I reflected upon this weekend's gospel I could not help but think that the source of Jesus' "authority" is not in manipulating his hearers' fear, apathy or ignorance but rather his ability to inspire them to embrace his spirit of mercy, justice and respect.

Ps 113B:3-10

With their hands they cannot feel;
with their feet they cannot walk.

SAFEGUARDING IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY
Last week the Archdiocese of Brisbane, Office for Safeguarding Services, launched the Safeguarding Strategy 2018-202. Brochures are available at the doors of the church.

VOLUNTEER LITURGICAL MINISTERS

The Cathedral Parish commitment to providing a safe environment for everyone who attends Mass is on-going. As part of the audit recently, it was noted that some of our volunteer Liturgical Ministers have not yet returned their completed paperwork. Please contact the Cathedral Office and the necessary paperwork will be forwarded to you.

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING

The July Safeguarding Training sessions are now fully booked. Further dates will be advertised in the newsletter as they become available.

SECURITY AWARENESS

There are several professional beggars operating around the Cathedral asking for money. These people are not allowed onto the Cathedral grounds. If you are approached for money we recommend that you simply ignore the request. If you are asked for money from someone while inside the Cathedral or on the Cathedral grounds you are asked to inform a member of the Cathedral staff.

THE VALLEY CARPARK

The car park at St Patrick's church, Fortitude Valley, is an important source of revenue for the parish. As we contemplate the necessary maintenance that needs to be undertaken at St Patrick's it is important that we fully utilise this resource. The Parish has entered into an agreement with Cornerstone Parking, a highly professional car parking operator with multiple Brisbane CBD and inner suburb locations. For more information please visit their webpage www.cornerstoneparking.com.au or contact their representative, Fabian Dos Santos at fabian.dos.santos@cpltd.com.au

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing
who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

SOUL OF MY SAVIOUR

Soul of my Saviour, sanctify my breast;
Body of Christ, be thou my saving guest;
Blood of my Saviour, bathe me in thy tide,
Wash me with water flowing from thy side.

Strength and protection may thy Passion be;
O blessed Jesus, hear and answer me;
Deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me;
So shall I never, never part from thee.

Guard and defend me from the foe malign;
In death's dread moments make me only thine.
Call me and bid me come to thee on high,
When I may praise thee with thy saints for aye.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper
you prayed to the Father
that all should be one.
Send your Holy Spirit
upon all who bear your name
and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us
love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

Marian Prayer

BLESSED BE THE LORD

Blessed be the Lord,
God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
You have chosen the Virgin Mary
to be the Mother of your Son,
and you wish all ages to proclaim her blessed — we pray to you:
Because she learned to love us
by loving her firstborn Son,
help us serve you better
by singing her praises.
Enlarge the hearts of all people
so that they may recognize themselves
as brothers and sisters
and adore her Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen
