

THE CATHEDRAL OF
ST. STEPHEN

Embracing Villa Maria and St Patrick's Fortitude Valley

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN

ORDINARY TIME

Year B

Weekend of October 27/28, 2018

I don't know if you remember where you were or what you were doing when you first heard the news about the terrorist attack on the World Trade Centre. I was cleaning the hall at St William's Church, Road Town, British Virgin Islands, when an American woman came rushing in exclaiming that a plane had crashed into the building. I said some polite words and thought—no doubt a typical overreaction, and probably a little Cessna had accidentally flown off course and run into the skyscraper.

Eventually I drove up to the presbytery and, by chance, happened to turn on the TV where I watched the full horror unfold. New York is in the same time zone as us in the West Indies so this was midmorning, September 11th, 2001, and I was watching it in real time.

I am reminded of this because only recently I happened to watch Voices from the Tower, a documentary about the deluge of telephone calls that flooded from the North Tower into the outside world after the first aircraft, American Airlines Flight 1, crashed into it at 8:46am. It is a gripping, gut wrenching documentary that you can still see on YouTube.

The documentary tells the compelling story of the frantic phone calls made by those trapped in the World Trade Centre as they slowly realized that their lives were probably very finite. For the many young workers who woke up that morning full of hope and optimism, their pending fate was both unexpected and unplanned.

In the 102 minutes that they had to live, they made telephone calls to those who were ultimately important - wives and husbands, mothers and fathers, children and siblings. The documentary revolves around the many messages left on answering machines. At times the words are unbearable and they testify to the terror of the day and yet in calm, and surprisingly very succinct ways, they say their goodbyes to those they love the most. For the recipients of those messages, the words and more importantly, the voice, are their most cherished possessions.

However it is the simple words of a wife at the beginning of the documentary that puts it all in context for me. These recording are treasured because, she laments, "the memory of a voice of a loved one is the first to disappear".

The fear of forgetting, remembering, recognizing a voice is something I had never considered and is very appropriate on this weekend as we look forward to celebrating on Friday the Feast of All Souls. Whose voice do you remember today? What person are you afraid of forgetting? Do you recognize the reassuring presence of God as you pray for and remember those whom you have known, loved and shared the journey with?

With every blessing for the week ahead.

PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

*Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.*

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.

Amen.

*Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

With the beginning of November this week we look forward to celebrating the Solemnity of All Saints this Thursday, November 1st, and the next day celebrating All Souls' Day. Traditionally it is a time to remember, and in gratitude, pray for those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. You will notice at the entrance to the Cathedral our parish Book of Remembrance which will help focus our prayers as we pray for our deceased sisters and brothers. Today after mass or any day throughout November you are invited to inscribe the names of those who you want to remember and as a community, together, we will pray for their souls. May they all rest in peace.

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLICS

The latest edition of the Jesuit publication Australian Catholics is available after mass. Containing topical and informative articles, your cathedral provides this Australian publication as an instrument of faith education and a resource to help us live our faith. In the summer edition there are features on the musician Peter Kearney, the beauty of Taize prayer, and a Q & A with Fr Hans Zollner SJ on creative responses to the abuse crisis.

There are several professional beggars operating around the Cathedral asking for money. These people are not allowed onto the Cathedral grounds. If you are approached for money it is our recommendation that you simply ignore the request. If you are asked for money from someone while inside the Cathedral or on the Cathedral grounds you are asked to inform a member of the Cathedral staff.

Thank you for your generous support of the Cathedral.
