

PENTECOST SUNDAY

YEAR B – 19 MAY 2024

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Acts 2:1-11; Galatians 5:16-25; John 15:26-27, 16:12-15

Dear friends,

This Pentecost Sunday marks the culmination of our 150th celebrations of the Cathedral of St. Stephen. In a sense, it has been a novena of celebrations as we started with the splendid Queensland Symphony Orchestra concert on Friday evening of last week and continued through until Saturday evening.

This weekend we have celebrated on Friday, Saturday and now onto this Pentecost Sunday. The Catholic community of Brisbane can rightly be proud of the Cathedral which stands at the centre of the Archdiocese and in the heart of the city. The various festivities have showcased the Cathedral as a welcoming home for all who come as believers and seekers, as well as claiming its place as a cultural and civic icon. The anniversary of the opening and blessing of this sacred space may have come and gone but the worship, prayer and life of this cathedral continues. We have paused to remember and celebrate and now we continue as a community who find a home within these walls and respond to the call of service beyond them.

My thanks to all who have been part of the planning, preparation, and presentation of these days of festival.

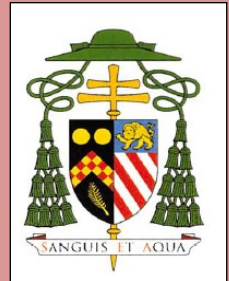

It takes a committed and diligent team to bring together the scope of the year of events, and there have been a number of hard working people behind (and in front of) the scenes. David Todd has come on-board as our event coordinator and has been the still centre amid the swirl of responsibilities and activities. Thank you to David for his work, commitment and endurance during the last 12 months. Much has happened because David has made it happen.

I would like to congratulate the Cathedral office team for their efforts, most especially in recent weeks as many things came together and time became pressured. The Archdiocese and our various departments were also great supporters and provided invaluable assistance along the way. Thank you to all who were involved in any way across the last twelve months.

The Holy Spirit beckons us into this Cathedral to hear the Word and receive the gift of the Bread of Life. It also beckons us beyond these doors and out into the world to witness to the power of the gospel amid the ordinary realities of our life. With one voice across 150 years, we pray today in harmony with all those who have come across the generations to pray: "Come Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth".

the chill, guide the wayward home once more!

Processional Hymn

Come Holy Ghost, Creator, come
(CWBII 382)

Come Holy Ghost, Creator, come
from thy bright heav'nly throne;
come, take possession of our souls
and make them all thine own.

Thou, who art called the Paraclete,
best gift of God above,
the living spring, the living fire,
sweet unction and true love.

Thou who art sev'n-fold in thy grace,
finger of God's right hand,
his promise teaching little ones
to speak and understand.

O guide our minds with thy blest light,
with love our hearts inflame;
and with thy strength, which ne'er decays,
confirm our mortal frame.

Far from us drive our deadly foe;
true peace unto us bring;
and through all perils lead us safe
beneath thy sacred wing.

Through thee may we the Father know,
through thee th'eternal Son,
and thee the Spirit of them both,
thrice blessed Three in One.

All glory to the Father be,
with his co-equal Son:
the same to thee, great Paraclete,
while endless ages run.

Communion Hymn

Come down, O Love divine
(CWBII 381)

Come down, O Love divine, Seek now this soul of mine,
And visit it with your own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near, Within my heart appear,
And kindle it, your holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, Till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let your glorious light Shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity my outward vesture be,
and lowliness become my inner clothing;
true lowliness of heart which takes the humbler part,
and for its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong, With which the soul will long,
Shall far surpass the power of human telling;
For none can guess its grace, Till we become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.

Recessional Hymn

Filled with the Spirit's Power
(CWBII 385)

Filled with the Spirit's power, with one accord
the infant church confessed its risen Lord:
O Holy Spirit, in the church today
no less your power of fellowship display.

Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire,
that unity may be our great desire:
give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call,
and readiness in each to work for all.

Widen our love, good Spirit, to embrace
in your strong care all those of ev'ry race:
like wind and fire with life among us move
till we are known as Christ's, and Christians prove.
