Processional Hymn

All sing

I bind unto myself today
the strong name of the Trinity:
By invocation of the same,
the Three in One and One in Three.

I bind myself to God for ever,
to Jesus in his incarnation,
baptised for me in Jordan river
and crucified for my salvation;
he burst the prison of his tomb,
ascended to the heavenly throne,
returning at the day of doom:
by faith I make his life my own.

I bind myself to God today,
to his great power to hold and lead,
his eye to watch me on my way,
his ear to listen to my need;
the wisdom of my God to teach,
his hand to guide, his shield to ward,
the word of God to give me speech,
his heavenly host to be my guard.

I bind myself to God today,
the strong and holy Trinity,
to know his name and make him known,
the Three-in-One and One-in-Three;
from him all nature has creation,
eternal Father, Spirit, Word:
praise God, my strength and my salvation;
praise in the Spirit through Christ the Lord!

Penitential Act

Archbishop Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All I confess to almighty God
 and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
 in my thoughts and in my words,
 in what I have done
 and in what I have failed to do,
 through my fault, through my fault,
 through my most grievous fault;
 therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
 all the Angels and Saints,
 and you, my brothers and sisters,
 to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Archbishop May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

All Amen.

Archbishop

Let us pray.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Acts 28:16-20, 30-31

Brigid Coleridge

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

He remained at Rome, proclaiming the kingdom of God.

On our arrival in Rome, Paul was allowed to stay in lodgings of his own with the soldier who guarded him.

After three days he called together the leading Jews. When they had assembled, he said to them, 'Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. They examined me and would have set me free, since they found me guilty of nothing involving the death penalty; but the Jews lodged an objection, and I was forced to appeal to Caesar, not that I had any accusation to make against my own nation. That is why I have asked to see you and talk to you, for it is on account of the hope of Israel that I wear this chain.

Paul spent the whole of the two years in his own rented lodging. He welcomed all who came to visit him, proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the truth about the Lord Jesus Christ with complete freedom and without hindrance from anyone.

The word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

All Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 10

1. The Lord is in his holy temple,
the Lord, whose throne is in heaven.
His eyes look down on the world;
his gaze tests mortal men. R.
2. The Lord tests the just and the wicked:
the lover of violence he hates.
The Lord is just and loves justice:
the upright shall see his face. R.

Gospel Acclamation

(ALL repeat after Cantor)

*v. I will send you the Spirit of truth, says the Lord;
he will lead you to the whole truth.*

Gospel

John 21:20-25
Dcn Andrew O'Brien

Deacon The Lord be with you.
All And with your Spirit.

Deacon A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.
All Glory to you, O Lord.

This is the disciple who has written these facts and his testimony is true.

Peter turned and saw the disciple Jesus loved following them – the one who had leaned on his breast at the supper and had said to him, ‘Lord, who is it that will betray you?’ Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus, ‘What about him, Lord?’ Jesus answered, ‘If I want him to stay behind till I come, what does it matter to you? You are to follow me.’ The rumour then went out among the brothers that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus had not said to Peter, ‘He will not die,’ but, ‘If I want him to stay behind till I come.’

This disciple is the one who vouches for these things and has written them down, and we know that his testimony is true.

There were many other things that Jesus did; if all were written down, the world itself, I suppose, would not hold all the books that would have to be written.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Archbishop

Universal Prayer

Damian Coleridge and Margaret Coffey

Archbishop Sisters and brothers, aware of the Father's great love for us, we bring our prayers humbly before him as we pray for our own needs and those of the world.

Cantor Let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

For all who carry the gift of ordained ministry in our Church – and today we especially pray for Archbishop Mark as he celebrates 50 years of priestly ministry; may he remain faithful to the calling he has received and continue to be a prayerful and fearless proclaimer of the Word.

Cantor Let us pray to the Lord.

For those gathered here today; that we might all be strengthened in our own vocation and find courage and inspiration through those who have remained faithful in the service of the gospel.

Cantor Let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

For the family and friends who have accompanied, encouraged and inspired Archbishop Mark; that, in gratitude for the support of community, the bonds of friendship and the infinite depths of our Communion in Christ, we too might give thanks for all who journey with us and sustain us in faith.

Cantor Let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

For the parishes, communities and dioceses that Archbishop Mark has served as pastor and leader; that the gift of his ministry might continue to bear fruit in the hearts of all the faithful.

Cantor Let us pray to the Lord.

For those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, especially Archbishop Mark's parents, Bernard and Marjorie; that those who hope in the Resurrection may be clothed in the garment of salvation.

Cantor: Let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

Archbishop Almighty and ever-living God, you sent Jesus into the world to proclaim the kingdom of God and to enrich us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Offertory Motet

The choir sings 'Keep us in your care'

– Christopher Willcock (b1947)

Keep us in your care, good shepherd, gentle guide.

Enfold us in your arms and bear us home where we belong.

When we hear your voice, we know it straight away.

You call each one by name for we are yours, and yours alone.

When the wolf comes near, and danger stalks the flock, you give your life that we might have a more abundant life.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word;
be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord,
be thou my great Father, thy child let me be,
be thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.

Be thou my breastplate, my sword for the fight,
be thou my whole armour, be thou my true might,
be thou my soul's shelter, be thou my strong tower,
O raise thou me heav'n ward, great Power of my power.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise,
be thou my inheritance now and always,
be thou and thou only the first in my heart,
O Sovereign of heaven, my treasure thou art.
